NEWS FROM THE 'SCONSET TRUST FALL 2017

'Sconset Lights

ELIZABETH G. GRUBBS
Executive Director

LEMONADE STAND: Young philanthropists George and Finn Moore sold lemonade and snacks and donated the proceeds to the Trust.

What a summer! Beginning with the Preservation Month House Tour and ending with 'Sconset History Night and The October Lighthouse Open Day, we have celebrated the Year of the Light in grand form. This newsletter highlights these festive summer events.

More importantly, however, we celebrate the philanthropy that makes our work possible. We can't document all the work that happens daily at One New Street on conservation and preservation issues. These range from monitoring the future of the LORAN property to work at Ruddick Commons and the Lighthouse to event planning. We are blessed with a talented Board and group of volunteers that daily give of their talents and time.

Your financial generosity makes all this possible. This page highlights some of our younger philanthropists who have proudly given. In addition thanks to all of you who generously support the Lighthouse Maintenance Fund, the Gala and our Annual Membership Appeal.

A special thanks to junior member Mia Pioli who has donated to the Trust since 2011.

Jog in the Fog

Thank you to all who volunteered and participated

The first Jog in the Fog on July 29 brought out 80 participants walking and running to the Lighthouse despite drizzle and rain. Many thanks to Eric Baurmeister for organizing the run and to his volunteers including Ann Baurmeister, Lesley Blanchard, Clement Durkes, Ellen Mitchell, Lynn Wilson, Greg Garland and Girard Ruddick. Also special thanks to Clara Baurmeister for the t-shirt design and to the Nantucket Police Department for their help in both the planning and execution.

PATRONS PARTY

Martha Dippel and Danny Korengold hosted the 'Sconset Trust Patrons on August 5. This glorious evening and incredible party was a way to thank our Patrons who annually give a minimum of $1000 to our membership appeal. Deepest appreciation to the Korengold's for this lovely evening and of course our Patrons who truly provide the basis of our support.

Welcome New Trust Board Members

MARCELLA BLAYLOCK ZIMMERMAN

For the past twenty-two years, my husband, Rhoads and our family have spent our summers in Nantucket and for the past twelve years in 'Sconset. I have been involved with the 'Sconset Trust as an ad-hoc member of the development committee and as chair of the first "Night Under the Light" and co-chair of the "Coffin Land Campaign."

In Nashville, I have served on several boards, chaired the Iroquois Steeplechase and the auction for the Swan Ball as well as other philanthropic endeavors. I've also been involved in a leadership capacity with several private schools in Nashville.

My work experience has been the creation of MBZ Interiors, my interior design company and prior to that the Director of Donor Relations for the Vanderbilt University Medical Center.

JAMES R. HOLT JR.

James is a founding partner and the Chief Financial Officer of Evergreen Environmental, LLC. Established in 2006, Evergreen has become one of the largest mitigation banking firms in the US. He is responsible for Evergreen's legal, insurance, accounting and tax matters.

An avid birdwatcher, beekeeper, orchardist, fisherman and hunter, James has spent much of his life in the outdoors studying fish, animal and insect habitat and behavior. He is a member of the Siasconset Casino Association and treasurer of the Siasconset Union Chapel. He graduated from Harvard College (1981) with a B.A. in English.

A Night under the Light Gala

This year's A Night Under the Light was a resounding success thanks to scores of volunteers, sponsors, and auction donors/winners. This is our only major fundraising event and coupled with our annual membership support makes our work possible. THANK YOU.

Special thanks to Gala Chairs Marcella and Rhoads Zimmerman, Silent Auction Chairs Rachel and Paul Sheridan, Volunteer Chairs Lesley Blanchard and Lynn Wilson, and Marketplace Chair Kate Heller O'Reilly.

Thank you our Gala Sponors
